

House Resolution No. 4433

Whereas, the members of the House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Sean M. Lawrence of Troop 100 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on December 11, 2004, at the Neosho Recreation Center; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Sean through the billets of Senior Patrol Leader, Scribe, Patrol Leader, Quartermaster, and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Sean earned him World Conservation and Paul Bunyan awards, induction into the Order of the Arrow Brotherhood, Warrior status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, and sixty-one merit badges which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Sean applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including five summer camps at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, two Camporees, four Rendezvous, and one Sailboat Camp; and

Whereas, Sean completed an Eagle Project which consisted of removing brush and trees from the old, historical Cox-Mosier cemetery used primarily for slaves to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait which justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Sean Lawrence during his nine-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Sean M. Lawrence, son of Steven and Sandra Lawrence of Seneca, Missouri.
